CROWDS TURN OUT

Last Night the Patronage Was Good at all the Shows.

Today Many People Are Out Availing Themselves of the Pretty Weather.

MANY STRANGERS ARRIVING

Last night came an awakening. The weather cleared and the people were out by the thousand to attend the carnival. Broadway was packed and crammed until midnight and all the shows did a big business. There was probably never another carnival town like Paducah. Everybody turns out, and some of the shows had to turn the people away at times, so crowded were the tents.

The street car company hauled during the day about 10,000 people, which is a good record, considering the fact that the weather most of the day was bad.

No. 7237 last night won the suit of clothes at the country store, with 6,705 next, if the other number is not presented. Mr. J. O. Caldwell presented coupon 3,867 and secured the fine umbrella. A big consignment for the country store has been received from Chicago and business is expected to improve today and tomorrow.

Messrs. E. C. Buck, C. B. Bryson and E. E. Hite, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and the Muncie, Ind., and Grand Rapids delegations, which came here to see the Ferrari attractions, were well pleased with the shows, which cannot be surpassed anywhere, and left for home after making a contract with the company to furnish the attractions for their cities this year. There was never a better, larger array of attractions offered by any company in America and this the visitors who come here to see them readily agree.

The free acts will be as follows today and tomorrow: Speedy high diver, 2:30 and 8:30 p. m.; cycle whirl 3 and 8 p. m.; riding wheel down ladder, 3:30 and 9 p. m.

Another big parade will be given tonight at 7:30 and a large crowd is expected out to witness it.

One of the best features of last night's entertainment was the German band, which is composed of a number of well known people of the city with "bazoo" instruments, who were well made up and visited many of the attractions. Mr. J. J. Freulich is leader of the band, and City Jailor Tom Evitts and Councilman Young Taylor are important soloists in it.

The bricks in the street at Second and Broadway that were damaged by spikes driven to support the cycle whirl will be replaced by the carnival people when the carnival is over.

The Carnival association members have taken heart now and are working to make today and tomorrow the gala days of the entire carnival week. The fact that so many persons turned out during the rain is a positive proof that the city will be filled to the overflowing with visitors.

This morning the Hopkinsville and Fulton trains carried countless numbers of visitors and every train and boat is bringing more visitors.

Director General Lagomarsino stated this morning that he thought the city would be filled by night and already the streets are nearly impassable. The shows have all done a good business considering the weather and last night the proceeds far exceeded the expectations of the show people. All the free attractions were well attended and the German village was a hummer. The place was filled from 7 o'clock at night until the wee sma' hours. The country store is also one of the centers of interest and the sales have been enormous. Mr. Sam Foreman and several carnival promoters have been running the automobile and the tickets are going fast. Some persons have collected as many as two hundred tickets each and some have made pools of the chances.

Dean's band gave several creditable concerts on the streets this morning and the Ferrari show band was also out giving concerts. The music this year has been excellent and the band concerts in the German village are features of that attraction.

Two ladies and twenty-five children from the Home of the Friendless are this afternoon enjoying the carnival as guests of Secretary Bronaugh and the Carnival association, seeing all the shows. They seem to be enjoying the treat very much.

Miss Tylene Wilcox of Kuttawa returned home this morning after a short visit to Miss Williametta Jones.

RETURNS NOT YET IN

Chairman Young Says it May be a Week Yet.

Possible They May be Held Up Until the Appellate Court Decides Primary.

THE SORENESS IS INCREASING

Frankfort, May 15—The official returns from fifty counties have been received at the headquarters of the state executive committee here. Mr. Young says it will probably be a week before all of the returns are in, and until that time no final announcement of the result can be made. The official announcement will be made on May 30, when the certificates of nomination are granted. It is probable that the uncertainties will not be removed until after the court of appeals renders a final decision as to the legality of calling the primary.

It is thought here that the desire of the executive committee is that the final results be held up until the decision of the appellate court, which will probably be rendered in a few days.

Mr. Young declares that he cannot say whether Greene or Chinn is the winner, and that his interest is only in seeing the returns impartially canvassed. The outlook is that if the court of appeals does not set aside the primary Chinn will be nominated, and Greene will contest the nomination, as he is urged to do so by many influential Democrats, and it is believed that frame's could be proven that would set aside Chinn's nomination. There is also some probability of other candidates uniting with Greene to set aside the whole primary by contest suits if the court of appeals does not decide that it was illegally called.

The soreness in the ranks as well as among the defeated candidates increases rather than diminishes.

HELPING THE COMPANY.

Mobile, Ala., May 15—A special from Jackson, Tenn., says that the wives of railroad men have come to the assistance of the Mobile and Ohio company during the strike of trainmen and switchmen and says that Mrs. H. E. Jones has been assisting her husband as baggagemaster and Mrs. Lancaster has made several trips with her husband and wears the conductor's cap like an old timer. Both Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Lancaster are prominent in society.

WANT IT DISMISSED.

Frankfort, Ky., May 15—Chairman Allie W. Young, Democratic state central and executive committees has presented to the court of appeals an affidavit made by Charles M. Meacham stating that he had ordered the suspension of the primary injunction case litigation, and had authorized no one to reinstate the case. Mr. Young asks for appropriate action on the affidavit.

CHEATED THE GALLOWS.

Lexington, May 15—William McCarty, who was to have been hanged here at 8 o'clock this morning for the murder of his wife, cheated the gallows by taking poison some time last night, dying at 8 a. m.

HANGING IN LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, May 15—John Black, colored, was hanged this morning at 5:33 o'clock and was pronounced dead at 5:41. He murdered his uncle some time ago.

BUSH GETS IT.

Edyville, May 15—Rush nominated and given the certificate of election by 117 majority.

CAPT. NORTON DEAD

Philanthropic Kentuckian Expires In California.

Left Louisville a Few Months Ago in Search of Health.

HE LEAVES RELATIVES HERE

Relatives in Paducah today received a telegram announcing the death at Coronado, Cal., of Captain W. F. Norton, of Louisville, who had gone there for his health. The news was a great shock to them, as they were under the impression that Captain Norton, while ill, was not in any immediate danger of dying.

The deceased was born in Paducah about fifty years ago, and was a son of the late W. F. Norton, a prominent banker, but he moved to Louisville when a child. He had always been a great public benefactor and was always identified with some of the most important enterprises in Louisville, being for years manager of the Auditorium there.

Captain Norton's health recently became so bad that he wound up his affairs in Louisville and a few months ago went to California to live. He was building a handsome mansion when death overtook him, a friend predicting only a few days ago that he would never live to see it finished.

Captain Norton was the last of his family, and was quite a wealthy man, despite the large sums he gave away. His donation to Louisville's proposed coliseum was about $75,000, and he gave much to charity.

THE LAST CONGRESS

Total Amount of the Various Appropriations.

A Number of New Offices Were Created During the Last Term.

A FEW OFFICIAL FIGURES

Washington, May 15—The volume relating to appropriations made and new offices created during the last session of congress has been completed. A summary of the appropriations shows a grand total of $753,053,506.

In addition to the specific appropriations made, contracts are authorized to be entered into for certain public works requiring future appropriations by congress, in the aggregate of $36,989,859, the principal item of which is $20,426,000 for additions to the navy.

The new offices and employments specifically authorized are 11,316 in number, at an annual compensation of $7,927,639, those abolished or omitted are 1,815 in number, at an annual compensation of $941,481, a net increase of 9,501 in number and $6,986,158 in amount.

A comparison of the total appropriations of the second session of the Fifty-seventh congress for 1904, with those of the first session for 1903, shows a reduction of $47,565,990. The principal items of decrease are for river and harbor improvements, $12,307,649, the military establishment, $13,841,383; the Isthmian canal, $50,130,000. Among the increase are:

For the naval establishment, $3,020,428; for the postal service, $15,094,951; for legislative, executive and judicial expenses, $2,200,000, including $500,000 for the enforcement of the anti-trust laws, and for the agricultural department, $770,000.

The total appropriations made by the Fifty-seventh congress amount to $1,553,863,002, an increase over the Fifty-sixth congress of $113,193,567. This is accounted for in part by increases in the appropriation for the postal service of $54,000,000; for the naval service, $1,750,000; for rivers and harbors, $29,500,000; for the Isthmian canal, $50,000,000; for legislative executive and judicial expenses, $4,200,000; for public buildings throughout the country, $10,000,000, and for the Philippine Islands, $3,000,000. Reductions are made in the appropriations for the military establishment of $60,000,000, and for pensions $10,000,000.

ANOTHER FIGHT

EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION FORMED IN KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., May 15—The employers of labor in Kansas City have banded together to fight the members of labor unions who use the boycott to gain their ends and have organized "The Employers' Association."

The association has decided to refuse to deliver goods to those places where non-union men or non-union made goods are discriminated against. This action has resulted from a brewing company's employing union men and refusing to deliver beer to a hotel bar until the union was recognized. A member of the association retaliated by refusing to deliver ice to the saloons handling this particular brewing company's beer, with the result that the delivery of beer to the offending hotel was immediately resumed. Several persistent boycotts having been laid against restaurants and various branches of trade in Kansas City within the last year because of refusal of employers to recognize unions.

DESERVED PROMOTION.

MR. A. C. HARGROVE MADE ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT HERE.

Mr. A. C. Hargrove, who has been employed by the Prudential Insurance company here for the past eight months, has been promoted to the position of assistant superintendent to succeed Mr. J. F. Cummins, who is transferred back to Owensboro, his former home. The promotion is very gratifying to Mr. Hargrove who won it by hard work.

Division Manager F. A. C. Baker, of Newark, was in the city yesterday, and left for Evansville, accompanied by Superintendent Francesco, of Evansville.

PINE MAKES PAPER

Recent Discovery is Fraught With Possibilities.

Lumber Men May Make Millions of Dollars.

The recent discovery of the secret of making paper from pine may mean millions of dollars for the thousands of yellow pine manufacturers of this country.

In every sawmill cutting an average of 100,000 feet of lumber a day there is a minimum of twenty-five tons of waste a day that is burned in the slab fire. The majority of the Southern sawmills are situated on the banks of some stream, where logs may be transported at a minimum of expense.

Each sawmill of the yellow pine section of the South sawing 75,000 feet daily and situated on a running stream of soft water can introduce a paper pulp mill averaging from twenty-five to fifty tons daily capacity, and they can absolutely figure on twenty tons a day at a cost of not over $1 per ton. This would be the cost of pulping the slabs, sawdust and refuse matter. In the course of its logging operations this material would not cost more than $1.25 per ton. Paper pulp at the very outside would cost $6 per ton, placed on the cars, and the lowest grades are now worth 3 1-2 cents a pound, showing a fine profit, all from what is now a waste in the yellow pine industry.

The yellow pine pulp manufacturer has a great advantage over the others in that the resin in the pine enables him to recover 89 per cent of his soda liquor in the cooking process.

There are millions of acres of what is called doty pine in the South, timber that is now of no use in the world, that would be the very finest for the manufacture of paper. This, worked up, would provide employment for an army and would add untold wealth to the country.

MIND CHANGED

SECRETARY HITCHCOCK WILL RECOMMEND IMMEDIATE STATEHOOD FOR OKLAHOMA.

Enid, O. T., May 15—Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, who stopped here on his brief tour of the territories, said in the course of a brief speech to an audience of 5,000 citizens:

"My trip to Oklahoma has changed my mind on the advisability of admitting the territory to statehood. Conditions all over the territory are remarkable and prosperity is apparent. You are entitled to statehood, and while the interior department has little to do with congress, I shall recommend immediate statehood for Oklahoma."

Secretary Hitchcock is quoted as saying later in an interview: "I am opposed to statehood for Indian Territory until such a time as existing treaties shall expire and the land is subject to title."

MUST SMELL NICE

OR PEOPLE CANNOT RIDE ON CARS IN ATLANTA.

Atlanta, Ga., May 15—People who carry odors other than pleasant cannot ride on Atlanta street cars when an ordinance passed by the council goes into effect. It is not known whether or not passengers will have to sprinkle themselves with violet water before entering cars, but if the conductor does not like their odor they must get off. There is much speculation as to how conductors will decide on the fitness of passengers to ride, as some people claim that there are conductors who cannot distinguish between the odor of eau de cologne and that of limburger cheese. At any rate it seems that the day of short nosed faretakers is at an end. The ordinance is yet to go before the aldermanic board.

FOR THOSE WHO LIVE ON FARMS.

Dr. Bergin, Paná, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.'s.

TO HAVE NEW ENGINES

Sprague is to Have Additional Power Soon.

Now Laying Up at Louisville Waiting for Repairs and Changes.

SIMILAR BOATS TO BE BUILT

The large towboat Sprague, at West Louisville, which passed Paducah a few days ago, is being repaired by the C. Hegewald Foundry Co. of New Albany. Her boilers are being repaired and other parts of her machinery overhauled. She will remain there three or four days.

The boat is to be supplied with a new set of high pressure engines, which are being built in Cincinnati. These are the most powerful marine engines that have ever been placed on a boat on the Ohio river. It is probable, however, that the boat will make another trip south before the new engines are installed.

The Sprague is the experimental craft of a line of giant towboats that the Monongahela Coal Co. will within the next few years have running on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. Ever since she was completed expert machinists have been running on the boat for the purpose of watching her movements with a view of improving her machinery. Changes and improvements will from time to time be made in her machinery until it reaches a state of perfection. When this craft is completed to the satisfaction of the expert marine machinists she will be used as a model for the construction of monster boats.

SUES HER FATHER.

Brussels, May 15—The report that the Countess Lonyay has brought suit against her father, King Leopold, has been confirmed. The countess claims that her share of the estate of her mother, the late Queen Marie Henrietta, should be $3,400,000 instead of $120,000 offered by King Leopold.

BLANCH WALSH WEDS

MARRIED SECRETLY SEVEN YEARS AGO.

New York, May 15—Even the relatives and most intimate friends of Miss Blanche Walsh, will be surprised to know that the theatrical star was married seven years ago, and that her husband all this time has been Alfred Hickman, a young Englishman, now in the Nancy Brown cast at the Bijou theater in this city.

On the heels of this announcement made by an intimate friend of the couple and a member of the Lambs, wagging tongues did not cease to gossip, for it was said that divorce proceedings, begun by Miss Walsh, or, more properly, Mrs. Hickman, had terminated in this city within the last day or two, and that a decree had been entered which would permit of Blanche Walsh marrying again at the end of three months if she so desired. It was while Mr. Hickman was playing the part of "Little Billee" in the original Trilby company, at the Garden theater in the spring of 1896, that he took Miss Walsh, daughter of Thomas P. Walsh, a former warden of the Tombs prison, for his bride. Who performed the ceremony could not be learned last night, or where, except that it was not in this city.

BIBLE AS A WEAPON

HAWAIIAN MEDICINE MAN KILLS A NATIVE WITH GODS' WORD.

Honolulu, May 15—A case of a native Hawaiian who was beaten to death with a Bible in the hands of a Kahunu, or native sorcerer, is reported from the island of Hawaii. The victim was ill in bed, and after being treated by a regular physician sent for a Kahunu, having more faith in the native "medicine man" than in a doctor. The Kahunu declared that the patient was possessed of devils, and proceeded to cast them out by beating him over the head with a Bible. The wife of the sick man was also induced to do some beating, and then the Kahunu resumed operations.

The man died as a result of the beating. The Kahunu has been held for manslaughter.

TRAIN BROKE IN TWO

Flagman Robertson, of Marion, Killed in Accident.

Engineer E. W. Shegog Painfully Injured at Dulaneys Last Evening.

SECTIONS OF CARS CRASHED

There was a fatal wreck on the I. C. at Dulaneys, a station on the east end of the Louisville division, yesterday afternoon when freight train No. 196, east bound, broke in two and ran together again killing Flagman R. J. Robertson and seriously injuring Engineer E. W. Shegog who were passengers on the caboose.

The train broke in two and before anything could be done to stop the two sections, they came together with considerable violence. Robertson and Shegog were caught in the caboose and badly cut and mashed. The former died last night about 6 o'clock at a farm house near where he was taken after the accident.

Engineer Shegog was not injured fatally and is now at the local Illinois Central hospital under treatment. He is bruised and cut over the left eye. He is a brother to Engineer John Shegog who was killed in the Harding on the Evansville district a few days ago. No passengers or other trainmen were injured and the local wrecker was sent out soon after the accident and cleared the track within a short time. Flagman Robertson was from Marion, Ky., and Engineer Shegog lives at Central City.

Mr. H. U. Wallace, of Chicago, chief engineer of the I. C., arrived in the city this morning in his private car on the Fulton accommodation train and is today looking over the work on the Cairo extension of the I. C. The work on this line is progressing rapidly with an extra large force of work men and trains will probably be running over the road by July 1. There is less than 12 miles to complete and the graders have received renewed orders to push the work.

Yesterday six boilermakers employed in the local I. C. shops quit work in sympathy with a fellow boilermaker who resigned because he didn't want to go to Central City. It was reported that a strike had occurred and a committee was called in to wait on Master Mechanic Barton but having no grievance they retired having accomplished nothing.

The railroad officials desire that it be understood that no strike took place.

Mr. Charles Griffin, of Chicago, an Illinois Central secret service man, is in the city this week assisting W. T. Dineen, the Louisville division detective, in looking after thieves and suspicious characters.

Clem Heflin, an employee of the local I. C. shops, while working on the wrecker yesterday, broke a thumb. The injury was dressed at the local I. C. hospital.

Mr. R. J. Turnbull, foreman in the local Illinois Central machine shops, has resigned and has been succeeded by Mr. George Duckett.

Roadmaster J. M. Russell and Superintendent A. Philbrick, of the Louisville division of the I. C., are in the city today.

William Keller, the I. C. gardener, is in the city today planting flowers in the local I. C. flower beds and lawns.

Leo Toof, a painter employed at the local I. C. shops, has recovered after a several days' illness of chills and fever.

THE GIRLS WON.

UNIQUE FIGHT BETWEEN STUDENTS AT ST. PAUL.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15—Girls in nightgowns and wrappers and boys dressed as Indians and tramps engaged in a fierce melee in the dining room of ladies' hall at Hamline university. The girls, who were protecting a banquet from the marauders, came off victorious. The banquet was to have been given on the sly, but it became known to the preceptress because of the fight, and she rewarded the young ladies for their valor by permitting them to proceed with the festivities.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

CURES WHEN DOCTORS FAIL.

Mrs. Frank Chiasson, Patterson, La., writes June 8, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at Du Bois, Kolb & Co.'s.

GIRL EXPELLED FOR WRITING PARODY.

Washington, May 15—Miss Katherine Martin, the daughter of one of the swell social families of Washington, has been suspended by the faculty of the Cathedral school, one of the exclusive schools for females, because she wrote a parody on the "Mr. Dooley" song, but worked the names of members of the faculty of the school into her song. The action of the board has caused much comment, and it was even claimed that Miss Roosevelt left the school on account of the contemplated action. The latter statement is denied with authority.

SPRING AILMENTS.

There is an aching and tired feeling; the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything, and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is that during winter there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure to the secretions a right exit, and by its tonic effect fully restore the wasted tissues and give strength in place of weakness. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

THE FAULT OF AUTHORITIES.

While the papers all over the country are commenting on the shameful state of affairs in Breathitt county, Kentucky, the authorities in Kentucky continue to sit supinely by and do nothing. It was stated in the Sun several days ago that Governor Beckham could send troops there if he deemed it necessary, and it certainly seems necessary if only to teach the element that has terrorized the community a lesson. That the governor could send troops if he really wanted to wipe out lawlessness in Breathitt is the position taken by a Lexington lawyer, who thus writes to the Lexington Herald:

"A strange feature about the assassinations in Jackson is that everybody appears to take it for granted that the governor has to wait until some local official makes a requisition for troops before he has authority to order out the state guard. The only law I have been able to find is contained in Section 2672 of the Kentucky Statutes and this certainly leaves it with him to order them out at any time upon his own information, however obtained and in his own discretion. Certainly the governor could make such representations to the circuit judge and district attorney that they would both see the propriety of standing aside, and this would enable the governor to organize a court under the protection of state troops and bring the guilty parties—at least, to a trial that the public would have confidence in. No body would regard a trial or investigation by a grand jury summoned by the present circuit judge as anything more than a travesty on justice or judicial proceedings. Whether Judge Redwine is justly or unjustly suspected of sympathy with one of the factions, suspected he is most strongly and most universally by the people. The preliminary proceedings that may be had during the delay of the governor to act can have no other effect, it seems to me, than to embarrass and expose to danger unnecessarily the witnesses who might be depended upon to testify for the commonwealth in any prosecution of the guilty ones. If the governor had inaugurated some such vigorous initiative when the other assassinations occurred more than a year ago there is every reason to believe this recent one would not have occurred."

In its comment the Herald says that the governor has been openly accused of connivance with the authorities of Breathitt, and intimates that he should have acted before now. It quotes the following law, showing his power:

[Section 2672—Governor May Order Militia Into Service—It shall be the duty of the governor whenever he may deem it necessary for the safety or welfare of the commonwealth, or when any actual or threatened invasion, insurrection, domestic violence or other danger to the public interest makes it necessary to employ military force in aid of the civil power of the government for the enforcement of the law, or to preserve the peace and the security of the rights and lives or property of the citizens, to order into active service so much of the state guard or military force of the commonwealth as he may deem necessary. The state guard can be ordered into active service only by the governor.

It also quotes the statute requiring him to see that the laws are enforced, something that is not seen to in Breathitt. In short, it seems the governor is placing himself in a bad light in the Breathitt county affair. To merely signify his willingness to send troops if the county judge asks for them is insufficient. The county judge, from reports of his recent actions, does not want troops and probably would not ask for them when the whole county was engaged in warfare if he thought his side was going to get the best of it. The only way to eliminate such lawlessness as that in Breathitt county from Kentucky, is to send troops there and restore peace and protection.

Lieutenant General Miles seems to have become incensed because his report on the Philippines was not published as complete as he desired. General Miles appears to have brought back with him a lot of second-hand, unreliable information about the condition of affairs there and the alleged conduct of the troops, and he took pains to present both in such a way that they would not be favorable to the United States. Most of the report is apparently based on hearsay, and would not be considered evidence in any court, and the war department might have properly disposed of it by throwing it in the waste basket at the start. Because it saw fit to eliminate some of the report in giving the public a portion of it, however, General Miles is hot in the collar and has demanded to know why some of the report was not made public. The country is to be congratulated on the fact that General Miles is soon to retire. He has done little during the past few years but cause trouble in the administration and army.

There is a great deal of interest in the Republican ticket to be put out this year, and the campaign already gives every evidence of being a warm one. The three gentlemen mentioned for the gubernatorial nomination, Hon. A. E. Willson, Judge Clifton J. Pratt and Col. Belknap, are men of sterling worth, and no better standard bearers for the party could be found anywhere. They are men of intelligence, integrity and popularity, and any one of them ought to easily lead the party to victory. The party is to be congratulated on the fact that men of this class are coming to the front in party affairs. It augurs well for Republicanism in the state, and the more such men we get interested in party affairs and willing to run for office the sooner will Kentucky become irrevocably Republican, as other states are doing.

Some of the Democrats who have been kicked out because they joined the anti-machine forces in the late primary, are mad because Chairman Albie Young is alleged to have done it without consulting the other members of the committee. We thought it was frankly admitted by this time that Chairman Young is practically the whole committee, and hence does not have to consult anyone else.

They are always finding something new to wrangle over in Louisville. The building inspector has now announced that before scaffolds can be built to use at hangings the sheriff must take out a building permit. He says he hates to do it, but it is his duty, as a scaffold is a "structure" and permits must be taken out before any structure can be built or repaired.

The man who has not called on Judge Pratt of the Kangaroo court has missed something. Also those who have—the latter miss from a quarter to six bits at every call.

Those who imagined that confetti had been tabooed by the revelers this year had their minds disabused last night. Broadway was fairly thick with it.

MARKET FLOODED

FULLY 1,000 CRATES OF BERRIES HERE TODAY.

The strawberry market was flooded today, and it is estimated there were fully 1,000 crates of the finest berries brought to the city to be sold. The result was they were very cheap, cheaper than known for years at some places. It is understood that many berries are being shipped here that would go to other places but for the M. & O. strike. They have to be sold, so they are sent to Paducah.

Mr. J. R. Puryear returned this morning from Louisville, where he had gone on business.

BASEBALL CHANGES

A Strong Game is Expected Hereafter From Paducah.

Simcox to Go to First Base—Jackson Team Comes Tomorrow.

GROUPS IN FINE SHAPE

Great preparations are being made for the baseball games Saturday and Sunday and the baseball association members are expecting a large attendance. Simcox has been placed permanently at first and several changes have been made in the team since Tuesday, hence Manager Jackson expects more hereafter.

The Jackson team will arrive tomorrow morning at 1:20 o'clock and will immediately go into practice. The local team this morning went out to superintend the rolling of the baseball grounds and the field is in excellent condition this afternoon. The rain settled the dirt and made rolling easy. The boys are now satisfied with the grounds and will do fast work on the diamond.

The captain from Pittsburg, sent here by Mr. Barney Dreyfus, the baseball magnate, will arrive today or tomorrow with a player or two. President Ben Weille and Manager Jackson want the best or nothing and will not stop until a winning team has been secured.

Jackson is said to have one of the strongest teams in the league. When Paducah secures Street from Hopkinsville, the catcher who did such excellent work here this week, and a few other big league players who are being farmed out, she will make just as creditable showing.

THE BODY EXHUMED

MARKS FOUND UPON NECK AND WRIST AND UNDER RIGHT EYE.

Lorain, O., May 15—The remains of Agatha Reihlin were exhumed at the Catholic cemetery, one mile north of Elyria, in order to settle the question raised as to whether the young woman had been choked as well as struck with a stone on the head. The body was found to be well preserved. Discolorations were found on the right wrist and upon the neck, and a dark blue tinge beneath the right eye. After a conference the physicians decided to make openings in the neck and beneath the eye to discover if possible whether these marks were caused by choking or blows before death, or by the action of impeded blood drainage thereafter.

At the conclusion of the examination Coroner French said that the marks were the same he had seen at the post-mortem, but that at this time it was impossible to say how they had been caused.

WILL PROBABLY CONTEST

THE ONLY APPARENT WAY TO GET A COUNT.

Attorney L. K. Taylor is still looking up law and says that he will probably contest the nomination for commonwealth attorney.

Attorney Frank A. Lucas, one of his partners, went to Benton yesterday and made Chairman Edwards a proposition to either place private seals on the boxes or to look them up in the vault of some bank, both propositions being refused by the Marshall county chairman. This leaves nothing to do but to contest the election and Attorney Taylor has virtually signified his intention of contesting and will probably institute proceedings to such end soon.

SUBSTITUTE RESIGNS

MR. EARL HAZEN GIVES UP PLACE IN POSTOFFICE.

Mr. Earl Hazen, one of the substitute mail carriers, has resigned his position, as it took up too much of his time to report daily at the post-office to ascertain if he was needed to substitute. No appointment can be made to fill the vacancy until the recent civil service examination is heard from. There are at present none on the eligible list. The other substitute is Mr. Alex Venters.

THE SHIPYARD IDLE

No Prospect of a Settlement of Jeffersonville Strike.

Some Interesting Information Concerning the Howards' Big Plant.

THE MEN ARE CONFIDENT

There is no change in the strike situation of ship carpenters and caulkers in Paducah, or at Jeffersonville, Ind., where the big Howard shipyards are located. There have been no developments in the effort to induce the men at Mound City to strike.

Yesterday's Louisville Courier-Journal said of the situation there: The men are not alarmed about the outcome and claim they can find better places elsewhere if the demands they have made are not granted. There is no fear of imported men taking their places, as they cannot be had, it is claimed, because the boat builders have been steadily leaving for several years to find work that is not so hard.

As a justification of their demand for more pay, much stress is laid by the men on the lack of modern methods in the yards which would lighten the labor of those who follow boat building for a living. Boats at Howard's, they say, are built just like they were fifty years ago. It is one of the few places in this part of the country where oxen are employed to transport heavy timbers from one point to another, and it is an odd sight to watch the boats lazily dragging timbers around the yard. Steam or electric power is not used for handling the lumber that has to be moved from one place to another, but when the quarters become too cramped for the oxen the ship carpenters pick up the heavy loads and carry them to where they are needed.

It has been a matter of wonder for a long time how Captain Howard could build the fine boats that he does with the few facilities at hand. The main mill is a landmark about the yard, and was used by Captain Jim Howard during the earliest days of the famous yard. The square brick stack, braced at many places by iron bands, is a familiar sight to the men who ply the river between Louisville and Cincinnati and without it they would feel like they were in a strange locality. The ship carpenters claim that if there was a shed room, as they say there should be, much work could be done in bad weather and this would permit them to make a fair living at the wages paid, but under the present methods so much time is lost.

The strikers assert that they are not worried about the outcome and if work cannot be secured at the carworks or elsewhere they will be provided for by the 600 other union men in Jeffersonville, each of whom will be assessed 25 cents a day to help those now out at the shipyard. A casual visitor to Jeffersonville would not know there was a strike on, as there is rarely a word heard about it on the streets, but in the eastern part of the city and in Port Fulton the strike is the only subject talked, as it is of vital interest to the people living in that locality.

The strikers deny that they took advantage of Captain Howard by walking out on him without proper notice. As early as the first of March, they assert, he was asked to consider a readjustment of the scale, but he paid no attention to the request. Later on Walter Lafever went to him, on official action of the Carpenters' and Joiners' union, but Captain Howard refused to listen to his request for a conference on the ground that he was employed in Louisville and he would not recognize him as a representative of the Jeffersonville workmen.

On Tuesday a committee waited on him, but the meeting was not satisfactory. Captain Howard still remains silent as to what his view of the situation is and looks upon the strike as a case of ingratitude on the part of the men he has employed for years. He is just as firm as the strikers and the trouble may not be ended for some time to come.

Captain Norton was relative to the Misses Morton, of Paducah, and no details of his death have been received. It is not known what will be done with the remains, but they will probably be brought back to Kentucky for burial.

USED DYNAMITE.

STRIKING ITALIANS THUS SOUGHT REVENGE.

Williamsport, Pa., May 15—Italian railroad graders at Marshal Hill, who had gone on a strike because one of their number was discharged, dynamited two houses, both homes of men who had refused to stop work. The dwellings were shattered, but none of the occupants were killed.

The sheriff, with a force of deputies, had arrived earlier, only just in time to prevent the Italians burning the construction company's building, because they were not paid off as soon as they quit work.

It is reported two men were killed during the rioting but this cannot be confirmed. Thirteen of the strikers are under arrest.

LEAVES TOMORROW.

Marshal Johnson of Huntington, Tenn., did not get away with young Plummer, the youth arrested for embezzlement. An effort is being made to fix the affair up and it may be the young man will not have to return to Tennessee.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Husbands held a short session of circuit court today and little business was transacted. The only judgment filed was a divorce in the case of Clemmie B. King against Charles H. King.

FIRE IN DENVER.

Denver, Colo., May 15—Fire destroyed the beautiful St. John's Protestant Episcopal cathedral, valued at $100,000.

BRAVE UNTO DEATH

SUBLIME HEROISM OF LITTLE JAPANESE CORPORAL.

Incident That Occurred at the Siege of Peking Shows the Qualities of the Small-Statured Soldiers of the Mikado.

During the active troubles of the allied powers with China, the Japanese troops excited the admiration of the world by their bravery and almost perfect discipline. Thomas Millard, a war correspondent, tells a thrilling story illustrative of Japanese valor and contempt for peril.

The force sent to relieve the Christians who were besieged in Peking had arrived and it devolved on the Japanese contingent to blow in a certain gate.

These massive wooden gates, which are sunk deep in the thick, twelve-foot walls, are approached by means of a little bridge across the moat that encircles the city. The Japanese general decided that a breach would have to be effected by means of dynamite. For this dangerous mission he called for volunteers.

A little corporal about four feet six inches in height was picked out. As with utter unconcern he marched briskly across the bridge, the enemy potted at him from the top of the wall until he was out of sight in the recess occupied by the gate. Having lighted the fuse, he quickly made his way back to his own lines without sustaining a wound.

No sooner had he got out of the way than a small door was cautiously opened and an almond-eyed face peered out. With his sandaled foot the Chinaman stamped out the lighted fuse. Then he went back and closed the door.

Defying almost certain death, the little corporal started out again, and once more lighted the fuse. On his way back he was hit in the shoulder and stumbled to the ground. Then he picked himself up and managed to reach safety. Once more, however, the Chinaman was too quick for the slow fuse.

Then the little corporal went patter back to the half-demolished gate, lighted his fuse, drew his short bayonet sword and waited. There was a frightful moment of breathless suspense, then with a frightful roar the old gate was blown to the heavens and with it went the poor little corporal.

It is one thing to risk one's life in the heat of battle, but quite another to face the certain and horrible death from which the subject of the Mikado never flinched.—Youth's Companion.

OPENING OF CASINO

The Bill for the First Week
Costs $1000.

There Will Be Many Fine Features—
Tickets on Sale Down Town.

The Casino theater in Wallace park will be completed by Monday morning, and great preparations are being made for the big vaudeville bill to be put on by Manager English next week.
It is a $1,000 bill, and the best by far ever offered the amusement loving people of Paducah.

The theater is complete and will seat about 1200 people. Every afternoon seats will go on sale at Alvey's drug store at 1 o'clock and the office remain open until 5 p. m. after which time they will be sold at the box office of the theater at Wallace park.

There will be regular coupon tickets as at the theater, and every seat will be reserved. It will be possible to purchase tickets for any night in the week after the theater opens Monday.

The high class vaudeville bill Manager English is to put on embraces many fine specialties. Misses Mead and Bennett are considered the most beautiful lady duetists on the stage,
and are certain to make a hit.

The greatest act on the stage, in the opinion of many, is that of "Cliquot," the mechanical doll. It set the eastern cities wild. The Philadelphia Record says of it:

"Cliquot" manipulated the instrument with almost human perfection.
The wax-like skin, unnatural rigidity and machinelike movement of the head, legs and hands were those of a mechanical figure. The figure evoked sonatas, waltzes and popular airs with such perfectness of expression as would do credit to the most skillful operator.
During the performance the figure did not change a hair's breadth. The hands and feet performed their functions in a peculiar, lifeless manner, the head jerking from side to side at ten second intervals, yet it performed every function of a live operator.

"The audience was wonderfully interested in the figure and many were the bets made as to whether it was a live being or simply an automatic figure."

Among the other features will be Kit Koster, the slack wire sharp shooter; Marion and Grace, the juvenile singing artists; Tom Hardy, the acrobatic tramp; Noble and Marshall, comedy sketch artists; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellsworth, in a society playlet, "The Silk Stocking," and a first class orchestra for the intermissions.

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a free band concert in the pavilion by Prof. Deal's band, the program for which is printed elsewhere, and a large crowd will doubtless go out to enjoy it. The theater is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for Monday's performance.

Mrs. F. M. Dugger of Jackson, Tenn., is visiting Mrs. Samuel Sugars.

LAZY COFFEE.

ANOTHER NAME FOR THE
"SLOPPY" SORT.

Postum Coffee is not made like ordinary coffee, for it takes at least twenty-five minutes' cooking to bring out the heavy food value of Postum.
It requires some effort for those things which are really worth while—making Postum requires a little care.

The grocer is in a position to hear of those "lazy" ones who will not take the trouble to make Postum correctly.
"I am well acquainted indeed with Postum," says a grocer of Camden, N. J., "for I meet it not only at my breakfast table, but I am also associated with it daily in my business."

"Coffee drinking used to affect my nerves and stomach, but since we have been using Postum in our family in place of coffee the bloated feeling after eating has disappeared and my head is now clear and stomach and nerves all right. We all feel better in every way and find Postum just as satisfactory to our palates."

"I have met customers who complained that Postum was not good, but we always found this due to the fact that they tried to make it as they used to make coffee. Of course we set them right by pointing out the reasons, telling them they must boil Postum fifteen or twenty minutes after boiling commences, then they get fine, choice and delicious Postum." Name

PALE ALE AND KY-LO

AGAIN DECLARED NON-INTOXI-CATING BY THE COURT.

A case of much interest was tried before Circuit Judge R. E. Maiden of Dresden, Tenn., in which W. D. Frazier of Martin, Tenn., was charged with selling Laevison's Kylo and Pale Ale, which were claimed to be intex-icating; but after testing these drinks and bearing the evidence of a number of witnesses, and the proof showing them to be non-intoxicating, the jury dismissed the case, deciding that it was not a violation of the local option law to sell these beverages.

The decision is of much importance to A. M. Laevison & Co. of this city and their many customers in this state and Tennessee.

Slave

To Morphine From Doctor's Orders.

Habit Worse Than the Disease.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Me.

When the nervous system has been shattered by the use of deadly drugs there is nothing to equal Dr. Miles' Nervine in restoring it to health and normal activity.

"I feel so grateful for what Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has done for me that I must tell it for that part of humanity that suffers as I have. During the three years I suffered from nervous prostration I found no relief except when doctors gave morphine. To get rid of suffering I took morphine myself as it was the only thing that would give ease, and now you, who point with scorn at morphine using, how could you, when in such agony, knowing it about the only thing that would give relief, resist it? I knew it was a terrible habit and I knew of its deadly grasp, but I never fully realized its significance until I had used it a number of months. Oh, the misery of being addicted to such a habit. I resolved then and there to quit it and resolved I would never be a slave to any such demon. About this time I happened to notice Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine advertised and ordered a bottle. After using five bottles I can truthfully say I am cured of using morphine. Now, however much persons may doubt it, God is my witness I am cured. This testimonial is unsolicited but I feel it my duty to give it for the benefit of the suffering."—MATTIE PHILLIPS, Prescott, Ark.

A PLAN SUGGESTED

The Arkansas Could be Easily Moved.

Barges Might be Floated With the Big Vessel—May be Tried.

"I have waited patiently for some old river man to suggest to Commander Vreeland how to get the monitor Arkansas back into salt water, or have her returned to St. Louis," said Captain L. S. Flatau yesterday, according to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "It would be an easy task and the expense would be comparatively nothing."

"If a tugboat would carry down to the Arkansas a couple of barges, lash them alongside the monitor, pass eight chains of sufficient strength around her keel, lashing them to the gunwales of the barges and connect at the same time with the gunwales of the Arkansas, then scuttle the barges, filling them with water so they would sink to the depth of safety, and pump them out, the monitor would be picked up to such a light draught that she would go out of the river at almost any stage."

"If the barges were of sufficient dimensions they could pick her up, scrape and paint her bottom as she floated out of the river between these two dry docks, as it were. I care nothing about her weight or tonnage. This suggestion is not a theory, but one I have learned from actual experience. I have lightened my own boat where she was drawing 6 feet up to 4½ feet, more than a dozen times, with little trouble."

Harrison Matson of 5155 Kensington avenue, suggests practically the same plan as Captain Flatau. He says it has been tried often, and is one of the simplest known in river traffic.

TURNED THE JOKE

THE DRUMMER DISCOVERED THAT IT WAS NOT FUNNY.

A great deal of mirth was created in the local I. C. baggage room yesterday when a drummer attempted to get off a gag on Baggage man William Flow-ers. The drummer set two grips on the trunk and when he went to get the "pieces checked" the porter dropped them gently on the floor. "Don't do that," the drummer exclaimed in a frightened manner, "those grips contain dynamite." Baggage man Flow-ers looked the grips over and then withdrew the checks, refusing to check them.

The drummer asked him why he refused and was informed that it was a penitentiary offense to carry explosives on trains and that he was laying himself liable to arrest. The drummer went forward and interviewed the ticket agent who also refused to act. He finally "came down" and acknowledged that he was only attempting a joke, "but you will never catch me at it again," were his parting words as he pocketed the checks with a sickly grin and departed.

ELKS REUNION

A LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT LEXINGTON NEXT MONTH.

Arrangements are being made by the Elks of Paducah for attending the annual state reunion of the order to be held at Lexington on June 16 and 17. This will probably be the most largely attended as well as the most important reunion yet held by the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of Kentucky. Every lodge in the state will be represented by delegations, many of which will be exceptionally large. More than 200 delegates will travel to the reunion by special train from the three lodges of Covington, Bellevue and Newport. One hundred or more delegates will attend from the Louisville lodges. All the lodges in this section of the state will be well represented.

POPE CONFERS TITLE

Rome, May 15—Cardinal Satolli recently applied to the pope to confer a title of nobility on Martin Malony of Philadelphia because of his large church offerings and his efforts to further Catholicism, especially in constructing a parochial church at Trenton, and the pontiff, after receiving satisfactory information from the archbishop of Philadelphia and the bishop of Trenton, has issued a brief creating Mr. Malony a marquis.

Walter Shinkle, one of the best known pilots on the river, died at the home of his father in Covington last Tuesday.

ADJUDGED INSANE

A YOUNG SINGER TAKEN FROM THOMAS' ORCHESTRA.

Springfield, Ill., May 15—In the county court in this city Rabbi H. Sherman, pastor of the orthodox Hebrew temple, asked that an investigation be made as to the sanity of his daughter, Miss Fannie Sherman, a member of Theodore Thomas' orchestra as soprano soloist. Her father and brother were bitterly opposed to her singing in public, holding that it disgraced a woman. Miss Sherman, while on the witness stand, testified that they had treated her most cruelly, even using physical violence in order to dissuade her from her purpose. This was denied by her father and brother. The jury decided that Miss Sherman was insane, and she will be taken to the central hospital for the insane at Jacksonville. Miss Sherman was lodged in jail, and while there she sang the opera of Carmen, attracting a crowd of several hundred persons.

WAS IN SELF DEFENSE.

GROUND ON WHICH MURDER CHARGE WAS DISMISSED.

Henderson, Ky., May 15—The trial of Enoch and Ernest Clary, charged with the murder of John A. Oldham, at Reed's Station, in October, 1901, resulted in a verdict of acquittal.

Oldham had knocked Clary down and kicked him the day before the killing, and when Clary appeared against Oldham he brought a shotgun with him for protection. Clary testified that he could get no protection from the court, and felt that he had a right to carry a gun, if he carried it openly.

The jury, after being out two hours, returned a verdict of not guilty, saying that the verdict was based on the apparent necessity of self-defense.

TOBACCO CONTRACT

The French Government Supply to Be Arranged.

It is Understood the Trust Is After the Contract This Year.

On May 20 the contracts for supplying the French government with Kentucky Burley, Virginia and Ohio tobacco for the ensuing year will be awarded at Paris, says the Western Tobacco Journal.

The specifications call for the following types:

Light Kentucky—About 7,000 hogsheds to be let in five equal lots, each lot to contain 5 per cent of the A type, 55 per cent of the B type and 40 per cent of the C type.

Heavy Kentucky—About 600 hogsheds in one lot, containing 80 per cent A 70 per cent B.

Virginia—About 650 hogsheds containing about 30 per cent A, 40 per cent B and 30 per cent C.

Maryland—About 6,000 hogsheds to be let in three equal lots each lot to contain 30 per cent A 40 per cent B and 40 per cent C.

Our sources of information do not state the amount of Burley required. The amount asked for last year was about 4800 hogsheds.

These contracts interest indirectly the tobacco growers and dealers in this section inasmuch as about 75 per cent of the Kentucky contract is furnished by Paducah.

It is understood that the American Tobacco trust is trying to get the contract.

BURNING SLEEPER

PASSENGERS FORCED TO FLEE IN SCANT ATTIRE.

New Haven, Conn., May 15—Twenty passengers, including 16 men and four women, had to flee in their night clothing from a burning sleeping car at the Union station. The car was near the rear end of the New York, New Haven and Hartford train which left New York for Boston. When the train reached here the sleeping car was connected with a pipe which supplies the cars with gas and the gas supply was turned on. Immediately afterward a slight explosion was heard, flames burst out and the car filled with smoke. The passengers, dazed with sleep and half-blinded with smoke, made a rush for the doors.

A woman was knocked down and suffered a slight injury to her back and right arm, but said she was not seriously hurt. An old gentleman who had difficulty in getting out of his berth close to the point where the fire started was nearly suffocated, but was finally assisted from the car and later recovered.

The blaze was finally extinguished and a hunt was made for the passengers' valuables. Among those who said they had lost money was A. Freschl, of Chicago. B. D. Kaplan, of New York, said he left about $30,000 in money and securities in the car. After a search a wallet containing the missing securities was found and Mr. Kaplan then said he had recovered everything except some money which was burned up in his clothes. The handbags and clothing of most of the passengers were water-soaked.

The women passengers were taken to a neighboring hotel and the men were provided with overalls and shoes.

GROCERS WAR.

A STIFF FIGHT TO BE WAGED AGAINST DEPARTMENT STORES.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 15—A commercial war, which, it is said, will extend throughout the country, has been started by the grocers of this city against manufacturers who allow their goods to be sold or demonstrated in department stores. The Retail Grocers' association, of Milwaukee, a member of the national association, has passed resolutions not to handle products of manufacturers that are placed in department stores. Henry W. Schwab, president of the Milwaukee Retail Grocers' association, says the action is the beginning of an open warfare against department stores of the country that enter into competition with the retail grocers by conducting grocery departments. He predicts that the action of the Milwaukee grocers will be followed by every one of the forty-one states in which the national association has branches.

MERCURY

A POOR CRUTCH.

Experience is a dear teacher, as those who pin their faith to Mercury find out sooner or later. This powerful poison combined with Potash, is the treatment generally prescribed for Contagious Blood Poison, but failure and disappointment is the invariable result. These minerals drive in the sores and eruptions, and apparently the disease is gone and the patient believes the cure permanent, but soon learns better when the old symptoms return almost as soon as the treatment is left off. You must either keep the system saturated with mercury or endure the tortures of sore mouth, ulcerated throat and the mortification that one naturally feels when the body is covered with disgusting sores, rashes, copper-colored spots and other aggravating symptoms of this vile disease.

Mercury and Potash are poor crutches, and their use eventually breaks down the constitution, ruins the digestion and causes the bones to decay. S. S. S., a guaranteed purely vegetable remedy, is the only antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It destroys every atom of the deadly virus, overcomes the bad effects of the mercury and cleanses the blood and system so thoroughly that never after are any signs of the disease seen. Nor is the taint ever transmitted to others.

We will send free our book on Contagious Blood Poison, which is interesting and contains full directions for treating yourself at home. Medical advice or any special information desired given without charge.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

Rewritten and Rendered into Modern English From Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir
By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR].
 Copyright, 1898 and 1901, by the Doubt-Merrill Company

"You have been playing the devil at a great rate," he said. "You have disobeyed your brother and your king, have disgraced yourself, have probably made trouble between us and France, for if Louis refuses to take you now I will cram you down his throat, and by your own story have led a good man to the block. Quite a budget of evils for one woman to open. But I have noticed that the trouble a woman can make is in proportion to her beauty, and no wonder my little sister has made so much disturbance. It is strange, though, that he should so affect you. Master Wolsey, surely there has been witchery here. He must have used it abundantly to cast such a spell over my sister." Then turning to the princess: "Was it at any time possible for him to have given you a love powder, or did he ever make any signs or passes over you?"

"Oh, no; nothing of that sort. I never ate or drank anything which he could possibly have touched. And as to signs and passes, I know he never made any. Sir Edwin, you were always present when I was with him until after we left for Bristol. Did you ever see anything of the sort?"

I answered "No," and she went on:
 "Besides, I do not believe much in signs and passes. No one can affect others unless he can induce them to eat or drink something in which he has placed a love powder or potion. Then, again, Master Brandon did not want me to love him, and surely would not have used such a method to gain what he could have had freely without it."

I noticed that Henry's mind had wandered from what Mary was saying and that his eyes were fixed upon me with a thoughtful, half vicious, inquiring stare that I did not like. I wondered what was coming next, but my curiosity was more than satisfied when the king asked, "So Caskoden was present at all your interviews?"

Ah! Holy Mother! I knew what was coming now and actually began to shiver with fright. The king continued, "I suppose he helped you to escape?"

I thought my day had come, but Mary's wit was equal to the occasion.
 With an expression on her face of the most dove-like innocence she quickly
 said:

"Oh, no! Neither he nor Jane knew anything of it. We were afraid they might divulge it."

Shade of Sapphira!
 A lie is a pretty good thing, too, now and then, and the man who says that word of Mary's was not a blessed lie must fight me with lance, battle-axe, sword and dagger till one or the other of us bites the dust in death, be he great or small.

"I am glad to learn that you knew nothing of it," said Henry, addressing me, and I was glad, too, for him to learn it, you may be sure.

Then spoke Wolsey: "If your majesty will permit I would say that I quite agree with you; there has been witchery here—witchery of the most potent kind; the witchery of lustrous eyes, of

and fell at his feet, hysterically embracing his knees.
 As the king stooped and lifted her to her feet he kissed her, saying, "His life shall be spared, my sweet sister." After this Henry felt that he had done a wonderfully gracious act and was the kindest hearted prince in all Christendom.

Poor Mary! Two mighty kings and their great ministers of state had at last conquered you, but they had to strike through your love, the vulnerable spot in every woman.

Jane and I led Mary away through a side door, and the king called for De Longueville to finish the interrupted game of cards.

Before the play was resumed Wolsey stepped softly around to the king and asked, "Shall I affix your majesty's seal to Brandon's pardon?"

"Yes, but keep him in the Tower until Mary is off for France."

Wolsey had certainly been a friend to Brandon in time of need; but, as usual, he had value received for his friendliness. He was an ardent advocate of the French marriage, notwithstanding the fact he had told Mary he was not, having no doubt been bribed thereto by the French king.

The good bishop had, with the help of De Longueville, secretly sent Mary's miniature to the French court in order that it might as if by accident fall into the hands of Louis, and that worthy's little, old, shriveled heart began to flutter just as if there could be kindled in it a genuine flame.

Louis had sent to De Longueville,
 who was then in England, for confirmation of Mary's beauty, and De Longueville grew so eloquent on the theme that his French majesty at once authorized negotiations.

As reports came in Louis grew more and more impatient. This did not, however, stand in the way of his driving a hard bargain in the matter of dower, for "the Father of the People" had the characteristics of his race and was intensely practical as well as inflammable. They never lose sight of the dot-but I do not find fault.

Louis little knew what thorns this lovely rose had underneath her velvet leaves, and what a veritable tartar she would be, linked to the man she did not love, or he would have given Henry 400,000 crowns to keep her at home.

CHAPTER XIX.
PROTEREPIA.
SO the value received for Wolsey's friendship to Brandon was Mary's promise to marry Louis.

Mary wanted to send a message at once to Brandon, telling him his life would be spared and that she had made no delay this time—a fact of which she was very proud—but the Tower gates would not open until morning, so she had to wait. She com-perated herself as well as she could by writing a letter, which I should like to give you here, but it is too long. She told him of his pardon, but not one word upon the theme he so wished yet feared to hear of—her promise never to wed any other man. Mary had not told him of her final surrender in the matter of the French marriage, for the reason that she dreaded to pain him and feared he might refuse the sacrifice.

"It will almost kill him, I know,"
 she said to Jane that night. "And I fear it is a false kindness I do him.
 He would, probably, rather die than that I should marry another. I know that I should rather die or have anything else terrible to happen than for another woman to possess him. He promised me he never would, but suppose he should fail in his word, as I have today failed in mine? The thought of it absolutely burns me." And she threw herself into Jane's arms, and that little comforter tried to soothe her by making light of her fears.

"Oh, but suppose he should?"
 "Well, there is no need to borrow trouble. You said he promised you, and you know he is one who keeps his word."

"But I promised, too, and think of what I am about to do. Mary in heaven, help me! But he is made of different stuff from me. I can and do trust his word, and when I think of all my troubles and when it seems that I cannot bear them the one comforting thought comes that no other woman will ever possess him—no other woman, no other woman. I am glad that my only comfort comes from him."

"I hoped that I might have been some comfort to you. I have tried hard enough," said Jane, who was jealous.

"Oh, yes, my sweet Jane. You do comfort me. You are like a soothing balm to an aching pain." And she kissed the hands that held hers. This was all that modest little Jane required.
 She was content to be a humble balm and did not aspire to the dignity of an elixir.

The girls then said their prayers in concert, and Mary gently wept herself to sleep. She lay dreaming and tossing nervously until sunrise, when she got up and added more pages to her letter until I called to take it.

"Lightness of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—a no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 10.6 on the gauge a fall of 0.6 in last 24 hours. Wind northeast a light breeze. Weather clear and warmer. Temperature 66. Fell, Observer.

The Summers went in to Cumberland today.

The Memphis is due to St. Louis Sunday.

The Sunshine is due to Cincinnati Sunday.

The Rees Lee is due Tuesday to Memphis.

The Savannah is due Sunday to Tennessee river.

The Hosmer is due today from Ohio river with ties.

The Butterff is due Sunday from Cumberland river.

The Dick Fowler left on time for Cairo this morning.

The Margaret and Duffey are due from Tennessee river.

The Tennessee is in and will return to Tennessee river tomorrow at 5 o'clock.

The Pearce arrived and departed on time for Golconda today. She had a good crowd of excursionists.

Captain Sam Green of Cairo, is reported to be greatly improved in health, but will return to Dawson Springs, Ky., for a short time.

The Joe Fowler left at 2 o'clock this afternoon on return trip to Evansville and the Hopkins, which will arrive tomorrow, will lay over tomorrow night until 11 o'clock in order to accommodate the crowds.

The John S. Hopkins will bring in a large crowd of excursionists from up the river tomorrow, and will remain over until 11 o'clock tomorrow night, in order that the people may have plenty of time to attend the carnival.

The Guntersville, the new N., O. and St. L. transfer boat which will run between Hobbs Island and Guntersville, will pass Paducah tomorrow. She reached Evansville today. Captain Koger, of the city, will take her up from here.

Captain Tom Good has been promoted to the command of the light-house tender Joseph Henry, in the Sixteenth district. He has been pilot of the steamer for several years. It is probable that Arthur Jones will succeed him as pilot.

The river continues falling at all points, and rivermen say no change is looked for until the June rise comes. At headwaters the stage is now very low, and between Pittsburg and Sewickley the bottom is so treacherous that it is almost impossible for boats to get up.

Bids on towing dredgers opened at the government buildings at Cincinnati Monday afternoon, were made by the Catherine Davis and the Adell. The Davis bid was the lowest. Both boats are laid up at Newport for repairs, but the Davis will be ready for work about June 1.

TO OPEN COAL MINES.

SHAFTS TO BE SUNK IN UNION COUNTY, KY.

Evansville, Ind., May 15—Local capitalists are arranging to sink several coal shafts in Kentucky this summer. C. C. Thomas, president and general manager of the First Avenue Coal company, of this city, is at the head of a company to open a coal mine in Union county, Ky. The mine is expected to be in operation by fall. It will be operated by union labor. Another company has been formed to open a mine on this side of Spottsville on Green river. A company headed by Charles Arnold, of Spottsville, with several capitalists from this city and Henderson, Ky., will develop the coal field near Livermore, Ky. Two large mines will be opened. The coal will be towed to this city in barges and a ready market will be found for it.

Miss Letha Puryear had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon while standing at the Stutz soda water fountain watching the crowds. She leaned too near the cigar lighter and her hair caught fire. Mr. Percy Jordan saw the flames and assisted her in tearing the hair off but not until her hair had ignited and slightly burned. She was not burned in the face, fortunately, but the hair was ruined.

TROUBLE IN ABUNDANCE.

STRIKE OF BUTCHERS, MEAT CUTTERS, COOKS, WAITERS AND BAKERS.

Denver, May 15—No change in the strike situation has taken place here. Pending the reply of the Citizens' Alliance general committee to the arbitration proposal of the joint executive committee of organized labor no more men will be called out.

The number of union men now on strike is 2,490, a majority being butchers and meat cutters, cooks, waiters and bakers. Thousands of people are very much inconvenienced by the closing of restaurants, bakeries and butcher shops. If an arbitration agreement is not effected today a general strike involving 15,000 to 16,000 union men will probably follow.

YOUR CHANCE TO GET NEXT TOMORROW—2 3-4 size cans White Cross brand oil sardines for 15c. This offer will prove a fat value at Kamleiter's.
